

AABANY Presents:

Access to Justice, Legal Needs, and APA Communities

DATE: January 29, 2019
7:00-9:00pm

ADDRESS: Cardozo Law School - Moot Court Room
55 5th Avenue
New York, New York 10003

Please join us for a panel discussion on access to justice for diverse Asian Pacific American communities, hosted by AABANY's Academics Committee, Government Service and Public Interest Committee, Pro Bono and Community Service Committee, and Student Outreach Committee in connection with Cardozo Law School. Lack of access to income-based legal assistance and to the judicial system affects lower- and middle-income families and individuals, including New York City's APA communities that experience under-recognized poverty. Topics to be discussed will include impacts of the justice gap in family law, elder law, housing, employment law, domestic violence, immigration, language-access, and access to courts.
